Mexico; White Goes North.(Special Dispatch to The Herald).
Santa Fe, N. M., June 10.—Governor McDonald is planning to leave the latter part of this week for a long promised and long deferred visit to San Juan county. The trip will be made from Gallup to Farmington by automobile, as now planned, and the primary object is to look over road construction in which the San Juan people have asked the air of the state highway commission. State Engineer French probably will accompany the governor.

Williams Tours Southern Counties.

State Corporation Commissioner Hugh H. Williams has gone to southern New Mexico for an official trip which will take him into all of the southern counties. Numerous hearings on minor matters will occupy much of his time. It is understood that the commissioner's campaign to succeed himself will not be overlooked during the trip.

Asylum.(Special Dispatch to Evening Herald).
East Las Vegas, N. M., June 10.—Judge Leahy has committed to the state insane asylum, Geronimo Lujan of Sanchez, this county. Lujan's favorite pastime, it was reported by neighbors, was the vivisection of cats. He did it with an axe, reducing the pelvis to a near mincemeat as the job could be done. Lujan's relatives brought the complaint, stating that his recurring complaints of the cat might be transferred to the human race at anyWagon Mound Levy and East Las Vegas, N. M., June 10.—Three additional towns were placed on northern New Mexico's dry list as the result of Monday's elections: Wagon Mound, Levy and Optimo. The votes in the three towns were as follows:

Wagon Mound: Dry, 115; wet, 112; majority for dry, 2.

Levy: Dry, 38; wet, 18; majority for dry, 20.

Optimo: Dry, 43; wet, 34; majority for dry, 29.

Watrous went dry in Saturday's election by a small majority. There are several sections of northern New Mexico which are arid as the result of elections held under the new local option law. Conflicting reports are received as to the benefit derived.

From the newly "dried" sections of San Miguel county comes the report that conditions have been greatly improved, those hiring labor being able to secure and keep help, instead of seeing their men leave them after the first pay day. On the other hand, however, the same dry districts are said by other informants to be the scenes of drunken debauches, owing to the fact that large quantities of whisky are brought in to tide over the thirsty until the next trip to a wet district. Instead of making a jug last for several days some of the people are reported as having tried to drink the whole contents, with the assistance of a few friends, in a much shorter time.LORDSBURG ELECTRIC
PLANT MANAGER IS ELECTROCUTED

Lordsburg, N. M., June 10.—While attempting to repair a motor at the well of the company, E. F. Hughes, manager of the Water, Ice and Power company, was accidentally electrocuted. He went to the well to repair the motor, leaving instructions at the plant to turn on the current at 4 p. m.

When he did not return after that hour, man was sent to the well to investigate and found Hughes dead. He had cut two of the wires feeding the motor but a third one was still intact. There were evidences that he was cutting this wire when he got the fatal shock.

Hughes was about 35 years old and unmarried. He came here from Minnesota several months ago.
